

Bay of Dreams ("Bahia de los Suenos") La Paz

Frequently Asked Questions

Is deep-sea fishing available in the area?

Yes, world-renowned deep-sea fishing is available in the waters of the Sea of Cortez. An experienced local fisherman can take up to 3 or 4 people in a panga, or in a larger covered boat for 5 to 6 people. You will need to pay for bait, rent poles if needed and a tip is always appreciated. Dorado, yellowtail and even marlin can be found in the area. Bring a cooler to bring your fish home. We can arrange deep-sea fishing for 2-3 people per panga for $300 for the day, cost of bait and gratuity are extra.

Is there a Restaurant nearby?

Yes, the 1535 offers great Mexican fare reasonable priced, as well as seafood and sandwiches. It is an open-air restaurant located directly on the beach with a wonderful view.

Is there snorkeling nearby?

There is great snorkeling with coral. Bring your own gear.

Is there windsurfing nearby?

Yes, world-class windsurfing and kite boarding at La Ventana is just 20 minutes away. Instruction and rentals are available in the area. The maid season is December to March.

Is there a scuba dive master available?

Yes, there are diving companies available in the area who can take you out for scuba diving, or free-diving spear fishing. Fee paid directly to diving company.

Is the beach good for kids?

Yes, the waves at Bay of Dreams are usually kid-friendly, with more surf in the Summer.

How is the weather at the Bay of Dreams?

The weather is usually warm and sunny, with a range of 90's in the Summer to 70's in the Winter. The rainy season is usually September and October.

How crowded is the beach?

You may find that you and only a few other people are on the beach. An exception is All Saints Week, the week before Easter Sunday. At this time, the entire town of nearby San Juan de los Planes camps out on the beach all week. Families have done this tradition for many, many years.

Are alcoholic beverages available nearby?

Yes, there are alcoholic beverages available at the "Mini Supers" in nearby Los Planes, and at the 1535 Restaurant there is a full bar. There is also a bar at the Train Room next door.
